AUSSIES' WEEKEND

RALLY SARDINIA was a mixed bag of fortunes for the Aussies contesting the FIA Academy series.

Brendan Reeves started with a flourish, holding third overall after the first three stages. But an oil cooler problem on his R2 Fiesta that he couldn't repair at the roadside forced him and co-driver/sister Rhianon Smyth to retire for the day.

Having restarted the next morning, the Fiesta suddenly lost power on the second of the day's six stages. But
