

{mosimage}After careful consideration, Brendo has chosen a winner for his 'Design a Logo' competition. He received a host of exceptional entries for the competition which made choosing just one winner a very difficult process.

Announcing the competition winner this week, Brendo said, "I'd like to say a big thank you to everyone who submitted entries for my 'design a logo' competition. I was overwhelmed with the number of entries I received. The quality of the entries was unbelievably high and it made it really difficult for me to choose a winner. "

The winning entry was submitted by Rob James of Victoria. Rob is a rally fan from way back – he caught the 'bug' as an 11 year old playing Colin McRae Rally and has been a fan ever since. I reckon Rob's design is going to look fantastic on my website, rally cars and apparel," Brendo added.

Rob's prize is a full day Rally School course valued at $995 which has been kindly donated by Mick Ryan of Rally School. Thanks Mick and congratulations Rob!!

Brendo's new logo will be added to his website and apparel shortly.
