

Brendo gets a mention in Peter Mackay's online article on extreme motorsport experiences.

- 4WD (72)
- Sedan (71)
- Exotic (59)
- Convertible (58)
- Coupe (48)
- Hatchback (47)
- Electric (34)
- Hybrid (33)
- People Mover (22)
- Wagon (16)
- Ute (15)
- Van (3)

---

Car Size

- All Car Sizes
- Large (188)
- Medium (159)
- Small (111)
- Micro (19)

---

Events

- All Events
- New model launches (193)
- Motor shows (53)

---

Safety

- All Safety
- Car safety (47)
- Road safety (36)
- Speed limits (12)
- Road rules (6)
- Drink driving (4)
- Speeding (4)
- ANCAP (4)
- P-platers (4)
- Driving tests (4)
- Road rage (3)
- Learner drivers (3)
- Speed cameras (3)
- ABS (2)

---

Other Topics

abundance.

Rally

There's nothing quite as thrilling and satisfying as experiencing a glorious tail-out, controlled power slide on dirt.

You're legally allowed to have a lead foot, with no speed limit.

Available with a choice of all-wheel-drive turbo Impreza, Mitsubishi Lancer Evo real-deal championship-spec rally machine, or a more dramatic-oversteering, V8-powered Falcon or Commodore. Take on the dirt rally courses from Rallyschool.com.au promising to surge with the serious business of emerging as a more competent, safer driver.

You can do the lurid sideways thing for mere unmitigated fun, while improving your car control, or secure your Commodore Australian Motorsport rally licence.

Punters get to drive at the limit in rally-like 900-metre loops, sometimes lined by trees for extra drama - and under the watchful eyes of experts including rally heroes Brendan Reeves, Jack Monkhouse, Cody Crocker, Simon Evans and Ben Ainslie.

To put your ability into perspective, you finally go for a hot-lap blast alongside one of the pros.

Bookings and information Rallyschool.com.au or 1800 000 000.

Fitness level required Medium.

Licence No licence required, minimum age 14. Mandatory competency.

Price $195-$995.

Time required Two hours to a full day.

Where Sydney, NSW central coast, Melbourne, Adelaide and Ipswich.