

Brendan Reeves will head to America next week to prepare for the final round of the 2013 Rally America Series, the Lake Superior Performance Rally (LSPR), which will be held on October 18 and 19.

Brendan missed the first two rounds of the seven round series but after securing a drive with Team O'Neil in a Ford Fiesta R2, he and his co-driving sister, Rhianon Gelsomino, have won each of the four rounds they have contested. This puts the Australian pair in a great position to take the 2WD Rally America title for 2013.

Currently sitting second on the championship table, just three points behind series leader Andrew Comrie-Pickard, Brendan can claim the title if things go his way. Should he win the event and Comrie-Pickard finishes second, Brendan will claim the title by two points. If Brendan finishes second and Comrie-Pickard third in the event, they will finish the season on the same points tally but Brendan will win on a count back as he has claimed more event wins than his rival.

It's set to be a battle royale but Brendan is confident he and his Team O'Neil Ford Fiesta R2 will be up to the challenge.

"Our whole season has been incredible so far and for it to come down to this at the last round is amazing," Brendan said.

"I can't wait for the battle to begin and take on the challenge flat out."
