 Brendan is always looking for sponsors to help him achieve his career goal of driving in the World Rally Championship on a full time basis.

 If you are interested in sponsoring Brendan, things to consider for your business are:

  Brendan is a young man with a great motorsport future Brendan is a successful competitor, high achiever and highly motivated Brendan has had excellent media exposure in Australia and internationally Many sponsorship options are available, including Rallyschool days for your clients Your business can have exclusive naming and branding options This is a great opportunity to support a genuine sportsman Brendan has well-developed media and interview skills and strong interpersonal skills Brendan is mature, enthusiastic, punctual, oprganised, hard working and highly motivated
 Rallying is widely regarded as the most exciting and challenging form of motorsport.&#65533; Rallying is a true test of both the crew and the car.&#65533; Rallying requires the crew to conquer all conditions and types of road surfaces &#65533; from rough and rocky to fast and smooth, on both gravel and bitumen roads.

 Rallying has a passionate following in Australia and internationally, and business association with rallying forges strong loyalty and brand awareness.

 To find out about the benefits of sponsoring Brendan, please email sponsorship@brendanreeves.com.au

 Brendan would like to thank all his current sponsors for their continued support, without whom his rallying wouldn&#65533;t be possible.